

Magazine Project

You are about to create your own magazine. In order to do so you must:

1. Create a group of 3-4 students.
2. Look through magazines of your choice in English and Hebrew to get some ideas.
3. Choose a topic for your own magazine.

You will hand in a printed and bound magazine on the topic you have chosen. The project is worth 30% of your school grade for Module E.

In addition, you will present your project to an external examiner in 12th grade. Your project is worth 60% of the Oral Bagrut Exam (as required by the Ministry of Education).

Requirements

1. Editorial- Write an interesting and organized editorial. An editorial is an article that expresses the opinion, agenda or goals of the magazine. (1/2 page)

2. Letter to the Editor- Pretend you are a reader. Write a short letter to the editor about a subject in the magazine. This could be a response to an imaginary article from last month's magazine. (1 page)

3. Factual Article- Write a factual, researched articles related to your magazine topic. Use at least two sources of information. Include your sources in the bibliography. Choose an appropriate title for your article. (1 page each)

Do NOT cut and paste! That is called plagiarizing.

4. An interview- Conduct an interview with a real person on a topic related to your magazine. You may interview an expert on your magazine topic. Your interview can be conducted face-to-face, by telephone or online. Write a paragraph to introduce the interview which includes:

- how the interview took place
- how he or she is connected to your magazine's topic
- the full name of the interviewee
- the date of the interview
- a picture of the interviewee. (1-2 pages)

5. A piece of creative writing- Write a short story, poem or song. If you write a song, be sure to include both the lyrics and music. Your creative writing must be connected to your magazine topic. (short story- 90-100 words; poem/song number of words can vary) It can also be a creative activity, quizzes, trivia, or other page on topic. Use your imagination.
